Wallace Nierman

Funeral services were held in Sun City, Ariz., on June 17 for W.R. Nierman, 72. He passed away at Boswell Hospital on Thursday morning of a heart attack.

He was born in Montana on January 3, 1913; moving with his parents to the Scatterwood Lake area where he spent his childhood years. Later he lived near Northville, where he graduated from high school.

On July 12, 1938 he was married to Ann Goldin of Mellette. They farmed near Mellette, and moved to the Wenatchee Valley in Washington in 1947 where they owned an apple ranch. In 1951 they moved to the Ferney-Groton area where he farmed until retiring to Sun City, Ariz., in 1979.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife Ann, 17435 Appaloosa Drive, Sun City, AZ. 85373; two sons, Jon of Fremont, Calif., and Alan of Groton; two daughters, Mrs. Ken (Jenan) Nilson of Mesa, Ariz.; and Mrs. Bill (Janis) Havens of Lakewood, Colo.; 11 grandchildren, five great grandchildren; two brothers, Fred of Washington and Ray of Maine; one sister, Olive Lane of Sun City, Ariz.; and a host of friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister and one grandson.

Attending services from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Nierman, Groton, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Goldin, Stratford, and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Goldin, Mellette.
